DELAWARE RIVER HIDES MYSTERY OF SLAIN WOMAN

Philadelphia Police Seek Clues broken away from its weighted sack broken away from its weighted sack broken away from its weighted sack kers trolley ear, is in Fordham Hospital to-day, his legs seriously cut and Fishermen.

Jarsey shore who a few nights ago ard a fight and then a woman scream and later saw a rowboat make off in the darkness.

The police also have found a woman' to have taken place. This hat was of sortis make, but it had been tern to shreds, evidently in a fight.

That the hody of a murdered woman was in the river was discovered by Col. Theorypson, as army engineer in charge of dredge work in the Delaware chansel. A number of workmen were manipulating the dredge when it brought up the body of the woman.

The men saw the woman's face plainly. She appeared to be about middle age, with blue eyes, and her throat had been cut from ear to ear. It looked as if her legs had been cut from her body, This however, could not be determined, for about the lower part of the body was a sack, which was weighted with iron or some other heavy material.

Buch was the fright of the dredgers that they allowed the scoop to overturn and the woman's body fell back into the Railway Employee Is Accused water. The case was then reported to the police and launches were rent to the river to dredge for the body. All yesterday and last night the search for the body continued, but no trace of it could be found.

DREDGERS FOUND BODY

The rowboat which the fishermen saw put out from the Jersey shore a short distance from Lincoln Park and the Red Bank Sanitarium. It carried a grantial larier norward and passed with making distance or one of the Government deeders. It also went close to some fishermen in a cathoat. One of the men in the cathoat told the police. The men as the men in the cathoat told the police. The sweet Mount Vermon car had stopped and the Yorkere car crashed into the from there came the men and one could tell there were three men and one woman in the boat. The men say that there was a violent quarrel at once. Then there came the screams of a woman in the boat. The men say that there was a violent quarrel at once. Then there came the screams of a woman in the boat and the sundows.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. II.—In an effect was a violent quarrel at once. Then there came the screams of a woman whose multilated body is in an thon-weighted sack at the bottom of the Doat, but lost it in the darkness. The police believe that the woman was called to the vreck scene, but the weighted sack.
